McClennen Indorses His Action in Warren Case.

Washington, March 4-A detailed explanation of the Warren case and the Mitigation involved in the fight for the control of the Gillette Safety Razor company was presented by Louis D. Brandels' law partner, Edward Me-Clennen, to the senate committee which is investigating the fitness of Mr. Brandels for appointment to the su-

Members of the committee manifested some impatience at the delay in bringing the investigation to a close. Several times Mr. McClennen was admonished that his testimony referred to the litigation rather than Mr. Brandeis' relations with the litigants.

Mr. McClennen's testimony relative to the Warren case was ostensibly a reply to the testimony of W. S. Youngmans. "If there was nothing wrong with the case," said Mr. McClennen in explanation. "there was nothing wrong with Mr. Brandels."

BIG COAST STORM RAGING.

Sixty Mile Wind at Hatteras Reported. Heavy Snowfall.

Norfolk, Va., March 4.-With the worst storm of the winter sweeping the coast, ships are in great danger. The wind at Hatteras blew at sixty miles from the northwest, and at Cape Henry the velocity was forty-eight miles and increasing.

The storm is accompanied by heavy snowfall, and it is difficult to see five feet from shore at Cape Henry.
